

SENDING A GIFT TO YOUR CHILD (IN THE MAIL)

Please do not send any large parcels to national offices, as these often involve significant customs duty charges for the project, and they will be returned to the sender.

Please do not include anything of value.

Gifts should ideally be relatively flat, lightweight and durable.

Some appropriate ideas when mailing your child a package, include:

- Books – small/flat (lightweight)
- Photographs – They are likely to become prized possessions!
 Send photos of your family, friends and your life (please send general situations rather than material wealth)
- Drawings
- Hair ribbon or Embroidery thread
- Stickers
- Paper dolls
- Postcards
- Poems or Stories
- Coloring book pages
- Birthday cards
- Origami paper
- Stationary
- Pre-printed pages / pictures for children to fill out
